1994-95 MEDIA GUIDE

BROOKS DAGMAN

Brooks Dagman enters his fourth season as program director and head men's coach at USD.

Dagman recently served as assistant coach on the U.S. National Rowing Team which competed at the Pan American Games in Argentina. He has worked with the national team in Lake Otay workouts for the past year.

Last season Dagman guided the USD varsity four to a gold medal finish at the Pacific Coast Rowing Championships, breaking the course record in the process. The four went on to compete at the Collegiate Nationals in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dagman was named to the USD post in 1992 after serving as senior assistant coach at UCLA from 1986-91. He earned three varsity letters as an oarsman for the Bruins (1982-85), receiving the team's Most Valuable Oarsman Award in 1984.

LEEANNE CRAIN

Leeanne Crain begins her second season as assistant program director and head women's coach at USD.

In her first season with the Toreros, Crain directed the varsity eight to second place finishes at the prestigious Cal Cup Finals and State Championships. Her varsity four reached the PCRC finals.

Crain spent three seasons with the UCLA Bruins (1986-88), being named to the Pacific Coast All-Conference Team and the team's Most Valuable Oarswoman in 1988.

The Three Rivers, Calif. native has also competed on the international scene, helping the U.S. to a gold medal in the four at the Cadbury International Regatta in Australia. Crain also rowed at the 1988 National Olympic Selection Camp.

She began her coaching career as novice crew assistant coach at UCLA, helping the Bruins to a medal-winning performance at the 1991 PCRCs.

THE UNIVERSITY

Location

The University of San Diego is an independent Catholic institution of higher education. Founded in 1949, USD is located on 180 acres overlooking Mission Bay, San Diego Harbor and the Pacific Ocean. The campus is just 10 minutes from downtown San Diego.

Student Life

Student activities include cultural events, dances, boat cruises, beach parties, BBQ's, concerts, comedy nights, symposia and much more. Students participate in a wide range of volunteer projects such as adult literacy tutoring, senior citizen outreach and house building in Tijuana. Over two-thirds of USD students partake in intramural sports.

Academics

USD enrolls more than 6,200 students who have a choice of more than 50 undergraduate and graduate degree programs. The University includes the College of Arts and Sciences, and the Schools of Business Administration, Education, Law and Nursing. Class size generally averages between 10-30 students with the student to teacher ratio being 18:1. Over 96 percent of USD's full-time faculty hold doctorates.

The Campus

The USD campus is one of the most architecturally unique institutions found in the country, featuring 18 major buildings designed in an ornamental 16th century Spanish Renaissance style. In the last decade USD has completed eight major construction and expansion projects. In 1990, the renovated Katherine M. and George M. Pardee Jr. Legal Research Center opened, a facility double the size of the former law library that offers the latest in information technology.

Athletics

San Diego is a member of the West Coast Conference (WCC) and competes in 16 intercollegiate sports on the NCAA Division I level. Men's sports include: crew, baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, football, soccer and tennis. Women's sports include: crew, basketball, cross country, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball. In the past three seasons, five USD teams have advanced to NCAA Tournaments.

1994-95 OUTLOOK

USD Crew, entering its 16th varsity season, continues to prosper among the elite west coast programs while making its mark on the national scene.

Brooks Dagman is restocking a varsity four squad which finished fourth nationally last year. Dan Tealdi returns as the lone starter off the four which set a course record at the PCRCs. Veterans Matt Uhde, Rob Carty, Matt DeArmedy, Chris Blalock and Craig DeAngelo join newcomers Ethan Stein, Charlie Claycomb and Warner Bonner as top candidates for the varsity eight crew. Coxswain Cristina McKay switches from the women's team to the men's side.

The women's varsity team returns four starters in Lysanne Ray, Tanya Snipes, Stacy Bunten and Helen Wilson. Call ups from the novice team include Kathy Glaser, Maggie Winter, Jennifer Babic, Stella Mellos and Jennifer Varsak. Senior Heather Whitney will handle coxswain duties.
